ATTACHMENT A

Notwithstanding any definition set forth below, each word, term, or phrase used in this Notice of Deposition is intended to have the broadest meaning permitted under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

DEFINITIONS

The Definitions set forth in Defendant's First Set of Interrogatories to Plaintiff are hereby incorporated by reference.

MATTERS ON WHICH EXAMINATION IS REQUESTED

With respect to Bridgestone's testing of golf balls or golf ball components (e.g., cores, core layers, covers, cover layers, dimple parameters, etc.) for parameters specified in each patent-in-suit including but not limited to the core coefficient of restitution, core compression, core distortion, ball compression, Shore D hardness of various golf ball components including any cover layers and any core or core layers, resilience index of the polybutadiene material used in the core of the products, JIS-C hardness of various golf ball components including any cover layers and any core or core layers, JIS-C hardness of the core surface, specific gravity, cover thickness, dimple diameter, dimple depth, dimple volume, core composition, core percent polybutadiene by weight, and 300% modulus (the "Design Parameters").

1. The testing protocols utilized for testing each Design Parameter of each patent-in-suit including the nature of the test, the number of samples tested, and the accuracy and precision of each test.
2. Any standards and best practices utilized by Bridgestone or third-party testers when performing any test designed to measure the Design Parameters and any deviation from any such standards, best practices or testing protocols and the reasons for any such deviation.

3. The manufacturer, model, and age of each machine and piece of equipment used in testing of the Design Parameters.

4. The machine settings and calibration methods used on all of equipment used in testing the Design Parameters.

5. The names of all individuals involved in testing the Design Parameters.

6. The record keeping and document retention policies of all records showing the results of the Design Parameter tests.

7. Any third-party testing of Design Parameters done on behalf of Bridgestone.

8. Any testing of Design Parameters done for purposes of facilitating the technical, management and business decisions of Bridgestone.
